Youth, Education and SDG 4.7

In order to build more peaceful and sustainable societies we recognize that the role of Youth and Education is a critical factor that will help us achieve positive transformation in our societies and largely the world.

SDG 4.7

“By 2030, ensure that all learners acquire the knowledge and skills needed to promote sustainable development, including, among others, through education for sustainable development and sustainable lifestyles, human rights, gender equality, promotion of a culture of peace and non-violence, global citizenship and appreciation of cultural diversity and of culture’s contribution to sustainable development.”

The Campus Ambassadors Project (Key Objective)

- ❖ To build spaces for open and free-flowing dialogue between students from diverse background in Institutes of Higher Education.
- ❖ To promote an atmosphere for inter-cultural learning, understanding and respect for different cultures.
- ❖ To involve the students in the design and implementation of the inter and intra campus activities on inter-cultural dialogue.
- ❖ To build a training guide around the best practices from different Campus Groups, which would be titled as – Student's Guide on Inter-cultural Dialogue.

Activities

1. Identification of institutes of Higher Education from each of the six United Nations Region
2. Selection of Campus Ambassadors and Mentoring
3. Identification of Peer Network
